As days passed I also grew up young and one boy of the village came taking the marriage propose with me he kept his propose with my parents and I also liked him and my family made my marriage with the boy. Until the sometime after got marriage I was happy. Then my husband and his family members also were good. The days were passed I also became the mother of two children. My husband would work as agriculture labour and I too would work in other's field. After some years my husband was addicted on alcohol. He was felt deep addiction of alcohol due to that he did not care about me and my children. Because of such deep addiction of alcohol he was passed away leaving this world. There was so hard me to run family affairs because of the lack of husband presence and children also were young. It is a matter of one day. I was working in the field, at that one sister of my village said me that let's go to India with me, there I will make you manage job and I thought that it was good and I came at Butwal Bus station by bus with the sister leaving my children at my mother's home.
